Arts Integration Unit Overview

This project is a partnership between Hoover High School, Teatro Izcalli, and San Diego Opera. Two ninth-grade English Language Arts classes and a selected group of student musicians are composing, producing, and performing autobiographical dramatic works and music.

Izcalli

Izcalli, the Nahuatl word for “house of reawakening,” is a community-based organization that began in San Diego in 1993 by a group of young Chicano/Native American activists who wanted to create a space for young Chicana/o students to learn about their history and culture through the arts.

San Diego Opera

The mission of San Diego Opera is to deliver exceptional vocal performances and exciting, accessible programs to diverse audiences, focusing on community engagement and the transformative power of live performance. The organization’s in-school artist residency programs encourage students to explore their identity, celebrate cultural diversity, and experience the power of telling their own story through drama and music.

FOCUS: Projection, ensuring audience understanding and appreciation
(Ta’s class: “public speaking and informational speeches”)

10:30 - 11 Session

1. Stage Management, Set Design / Lighting / Sound, and Costumes / Hair / Makeup groups will present their comments to the class.
2. While these groups are presenting, the actors for Jorge's play will be doing a pre-performance warm up.
3. After the presentations, production teams and the actors for Jorge's play will get in place and do a full run-through of the play with lights, minimal props, etc.
4. Acting groups and Front of House / Marketing group will sit in the audience and watch the run-through of Jorge's play.
5. If there is time after the run-through there will be a short discussion about ways to improve the performance.

Note: What we are observing is the last 30 min of a longer lesson. Below is the plan for the entire class to give you some context.

STANDARDS

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.9-10.1

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.9-10.4
Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language of a court opinion differs from that of a newspaper).

Grade Hs proficient
TH:Cr3.1.HSI

Materials
Butcher paper (15 sheets)
Pens (7)
Extra copies of scripts (5 extra copies of each script)

1. Group Warm up
2. CT will inform students about writing project in journals. Lead quick warm up (8 count backwards, informs students that we will be breaking off into groups.
3. Break up into groups. TA's lead discussions.
4. What do we know about informative speeches. How can what you have learned about informative speeches help you with your role in this project? (e.g. makeup, actor, stage manager, lighting, etc.)
5. TAs write down student responses to these questions on butcher paper
6. Student site evidence from the script to support production choices. (textual evidence) Example: Family is speaking softly because they fear La Migra.
7. CT visits each group at least twice per class for 5 minutes per visit to support activities by engaging with students and TAs
8. By 8:10 for Period 1 and by 9:50 for Period 2, each group has identified
   - About 2 minutes of comments to make to the rest of the class about the project
   - A student spokesperson to share these comments with the class
9. Projection Exercise
10. After the Projection Exercise
    - In period 1: Each group will present their comments to the class. After the presentations, each production team and the actors prepare for run-throughs of Sequoia's play.
    - In period 2: each group will jump straight into preparing for the run-throughs of Jorge's play
        - Production teams will be active in the production with their group assignments while watching the run-through.
        - Makeup / Hair / Costumes will be putting on makeup for the actors for Sequoia and Jorge's play.
        - Mike and Iyari's acting group will sit in the house as audience members or rehearse their plays outside.
        - Front of House / Marketing group will watch the run-through to come up with creative ideas to market performance.
